clydebank housing association

Issued:
16 January 2015

Clydebank Housing Association (CHA) begins its 30th year with a new Chief Executive Officer.

Clydebank Housing Association is delighted to announce the appointment of its new Chief Executive Officer, Sharon Keenan on 01 January 2015. Sharon has almost 30 years' service at CHA, with a combined 10 years as Finance Manager and Depute Director. She has taken over from Fiona Webster who left the organisation in December 2014 after 24 years' service.

Sharon said, "I am extremely proud to take over the reins from Fiona and very much look forward to my new role. Continuing to safeguard or indeed exceed our high levels of performance and tenant satisfaction will be my priority and will be achieved by ensuring our rents remain affordable to our tenants and services provided are of a high standard and reflect value for money."

She added "it's an extremely exciting time for everyone at CHA as it celebrates 30 years' within the community. We will be looking back at our many achievements and celebrating them throughout 2015 during shareholder, tenant and community events".

Announcing the appointment, Tom Winter, Chairman said "We at Clydebank Housing Association are very pleased that the Management Committee has selected Sharon as our Chief Executive Officer and hope to work together for many years to come. I am sure that our excellent staff team under Sharon's leadership will continue to put the views and needs of tenants and customers first and that the Association will go from strength to strength".
